MR. RYKERT RESIGNS.
THE SEAT FOR LINCOLN AND NIAGARA VACATED.

The Action Taken in View of a Probable Adverse Report by the Committee
The ex-Member Talks Freely to a

After a very dull afternoon the House opened with quite a dramatic incident in the evening. The members were scarce half their places when the event occurred, and was begun and ended within five minutes. Rising "to a question of privilege," Rykert proceeded calmly and in a tone pressing a sense of injury to make what was to be his last address to the House of which he had half a life-time he has been a member.

He wished to speak, he said, relative to the publication in The Globe newspaper twelve weeks ago of certain correspondence

He had been called upon to make explanation in the House and he done so then, taking occasion to state the correspondence in question had published broadcast in Lincoln previous the elections of 1883 and was made a issue in that campaign. He felt that matter having at that time been so thoroughly discussed he had a right to claim protection under the law against it being brought again after this lapse of time, and he thought

Two parliaments had elapsed since it first published and he felt that at this he had a right to claim freedom from further discussion here. When, however, the House decided to take proceedings he felt that he had a right to demand that charges of a specific character should be laid against him. He felt that in years' continuous and faithful service in

It seemed as if Mr. Rykert was launupon a lengthy address, but he was he-interrupted by Mr. Blake, who raised a po-order. It was not in order, said Mr. E. to discuss the conduct of a committee had not reported.

The Speaker thereupon remarked th-

Mr. Rykert declared he had no desire to infringe upon the rules of the House, but did feel and felt yet that he had not had play at the hands of the House or of the committee. He had hoped when his was first closed before the committee that it would not be opened again, but shortly afterwards it was reopened and he undertook again to-day it was reopened in his absence of the nature of the charges brought against him.

His trust being questioned, he felt it should give that trust back to his constituents and enable them to dispose of it as thought fit.

Having been charged with accepting trust and by saying it he could no longer occupy his seat in the House. Therefore he felt it his duty to tender, as he now tenders his resignation as a member of this body for the County of Lincoln.

Having thus concluded Mr. Rykert went out of the chamber.

The episode was a painful one and it was with a feeling of relief that the House proceeded, without a syllable respecting the departed member, to take up the record business.

Mr. Rykert seems merely to have the investigating committee were to unanimously reported him guilty of conduct scandalous, corrupt and discreditable. The fact that this report was agreed upon currently reported about 5 o'clock and about that time Mr. Rykert appears to have made up his mind to resign.

Speaking to a reporter after he had left the chamber, Mr. Rykert said he had made up his mind what his future intentions would be.

Asked if he would be a candidate a Mr. Rykert said he did not know. "I am tired of public life," he said, "but I will do what my friends have to say before I make any definite announcement about my future movements."

The general feeling appears to be that Rykert took the wisest course in resigning. His political friends were loath to vote the adoption of a report which would be called for his expulsion, but under the circumstance of the case they could not see their way clear to reject the report.

In committee on the banking bill Foster announced a modification of clause respecting unclaimed balances. There are to be left with the banks, and instead requiring the money to be paid over Government simply asks a statement in tail respecting such unclaimed moneys, return to be laid before Parliament.

The House adjourned at 12.10.

The earth's corner-stone was laid, like the Father, like the Son, like the Holy Ghost. The Author of revelation, standing among the great stars, looked upon Moses, and said, "Let us record for future ages the words of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit; I will write it here on the book of my power; it will write it here on the book of my power; it will write it here on the book of my power."

At Haverden, Wrentham, Mr. Gladstone, while showing me his trees during a prolonged walk through his magnificent park, pointed out a sycamore, and with a wave of the hand, said, "That is the sycamore of the Holy Land did you see a sycamore more remarkable than that?" I confessed that I had not. Its branches were not more remarkable than of faith. "Ye might say unto this sycamore tree, 'Be thou plucked up by the root and be thou carried to the top of Lebanon; and they should say, 'Thou shalt not be moved, neither shalt thou be carried thither."

FROM Stomach and Liver derangements—Dyspepsia, Biliousness, Sick Headache, and Constipation—find a sure and certain relief in Ayer's Pills. In all such cases where a cathartic is needed,
these Pills are recommended by leading physicians.

Dr. T. E. Hastings
of Baltimore, says
"Ayer's Pills are the best cathartic and aperient within my reach of my profession."

Dr. John W. Brown, of Oceans, W.
Va., writes: "I have prescribed Ayer's Pills in my practice, and find them effectual. I urge their general use in families."

"For a number of years I was afflicted

"I have used Ayer's Pills for the past twenty years, and am satisfied I should not lose the habit. It had not been necessary to resort to them for many years, but when all other remedies failed, and the occasional use has kept me in a healthy condition ever since."—T. P. Brown, Chester, Pa.

"Having been subject, for years, to constipation, without being able to find much relief, I at last tried Ayer's Pills, and both a duty and a pleasure to testify that they have been of great benefit from their use. For over two years past I have taken one of these Pills every night before retiring. I would not willingly give up the use of them. I live at No. 10 East Main st., Carlisle, Pa."

"Ayer's Pills have been used in my family upwards of twenty years, and have completely verified all that is claimed for them. In attacks of piles, from which I suffer, they have been of great benefit."

I have been using Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People for some time, and I feel compelled to state that they have done me much good. I was very pale and lacked energy before I began to take them, and now I feel strong and healthy. I have been able to do my work with much more ease and pleasure than before, and I have gained much weight. I am sure that these pills are a most valuable remedy for all who are pale and weak.

The Loss Will Reach One Hundred Thousand Dollars—A Fire that Caused Great Excitement—Thought to Have Originated Through Spontaneous Combustion.

ALBANY, May 22.—One of the quickest, hottest and most exciting fires of recent years occurred here to-night in the burning of one of the New York Central freighthouses near the river. About 75 people all over the city heard a deep, dull, booming roar that was followed by a series of smaller

The sidewalk on West Main street on the brow of Yeoman's Hill is in a deplorable condition and needs to be replaced by a new one at once. The sidewalks and pavements in Belleville are the worst in the Province.

Improve the Harbor.

A Temperance Concert.

The Royal Templers of Temperance gave a most successful concert in their hall on Bridge street last night. The hall was crowded to the doors with an appreciative audience. After singing hymns Mrs. Nash gave a reading in her usual good style. H. C. Thompson followed in a recital which was heartily appreciated by all present. Miss Richardson's solo was also well received. Miss Dulmage gave a reading and Mrs. Geary also gave a solo. J. J. K. P. M. gave an address on the claims of religion for which he has earned more than a local reputation. The programme was a successful finale by a duet by Mrs. Ingram and F. Lewis. The society intend to give another concert in future date when efforts will be made to make it even more attractive than that of last night.

BELEVEILLE, MAY 29 1890.

NOWAT AND TEMPERANCE.

We now come to the consideration of the question about which a divergence of opinion may very reasonably be expected to occur. The first of these involves the temperance question and of the liquor license system. There has never been any unity of opinion on these subjects, and probably never will be. It has long been a moot question whether or not temperance can be promoted by practical legislation by the State, or whether it is better left to the action of the individual. The point for which we have neither space nor time to discuss is the fact that the cause of temperance may be promoted to a measurable extent by the action of its worst enemy averted by judicious legislation and this has been done. In the Crooks Act to a greater degree than has been any other legislation that has been adopted in this country. We have the North Act passed by the Dominion Parliament, which was abandoned because of its inefficiency. Amendments to the Crooks Act have been made at various times, but its general principles and provisions remain intact, and it seems to approach nearer to what meets the public demand than any other legislative enactment and so for it may be regarded as a just and prudent measure. It merits, certainly, the credit it deserves and therefore on the whole it must be conceded that the Mowat administration is deserving of credit for passing it, and it is therefore not for passing it as a reason why the Mowat Government should not be sustained. It is an act of legislation to be placed to the credit of the present government and simply because it is the best act on the subject we have had on the statute book.

The Government, we think, has been unreasonably censured because it took away from the municipalities the licensing power and assumed the authority by the Act of the legislature, to appoint License Commissioners and License Inspectors. It will be well remembered by many of our readers that before this power was assumed by the Government when it was vested in the municipalities, there were complaints all over the Province, that the old system worked badly, that license inspectors were appointed and licensed granted without any regard to justice or merit—that a log rolling practice, favoritism in making appointments and in granting licenses, everywhere prevailed. It was urged by both political parties in order to get rid of the log rolling interference of members of municipal councils, that the Government should take the power and assume the authority of appointing commissioners to do the work. The Government complied with the universal demand and it is unreasonable to blame it for what it did in this matter in the way of legislation and accuse it of corruption for the purpose of increasing its own power and patronage. Moreover, when, under a willing misapprehension of the true meaning and intent of the British North America Act the Federal Government assumed that it had the right to legislate on the licensing of liquor sellers it passed a general act on the subject, but it did not change the system materially nor did it restore the power to the municipalities. Finally, the Government assumed that the system was not so bad, that both political parties favored the system which the Mowat Government adopted with regard to the appointment of license commissioners and license inspectors. Under these circumstances then, it would it not be most unreasonable to condemn the Mowat Government because it exercised the power given by the legislature.

It is further said that all these license commissioners and license inspectors are partisan supporters of the government. Well, it is, it has not been the uniform practice of all Canadian governments for 30 years to make all appointments in the civil service from among the supporters? If a new government should take the place of that of Mr. Mowat as the result of the pending election, but which event is not likely to occur, that new government following well established precedent would adopt precisely the same practice as Mr. Mowat has pursued in this matter. It has been urged, but not satisfactorily substantiated, that some of the license commissioners are extremely partisan, most unjust and partial, ever active in the discharge of the functions of their office. We are bound to say that it is the duty of the government, indeed, of all governments, to punish their subordinate in office whenever they are proved to be guilty of malfeasance of office, or infraction of law or any malicious or intentional wrong to any one of her majesty's subjects, no matter what his creed, politics or race may be.

We think we have fairly and reasonably placed all the facts of the case in regard to the temperance, liquor license, legislation and the appointment of license commissioners and inspectors before our readers. We have pointed out the objections that have been made and duly considered them, yet we cannot see any just and reasonable grounds for putting the Mowat Government out of office after many years of faithful service, and replacing it at this juncture with new and untried men, who have two or three months to offer in the way of reform, but who in the main would have to do the same old things as the present government in almost the same steps as their predecessors.

We cannot avoid the conclusion that to turn the Mowat Government out of office for its alleged sins would be unjust and show both ingratitude and folly on the part of the people of this Province.

Ease by day and repose by night are enjoyed by those who are wise enough to apply Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil to their aching muscles and joints, and find easily relief in the palm of the hand often enough to relieve the most terrible pain.

write—"I have been watching the progress of Dr. Thomas' Eucalypti since its introduction to this place, and with much pleasure state that my anticipations of its success have been fully realized. It has cured me of bronchitis and of the cough, and I am now in the best of health.
I am sure that a few of my 'rheumatic neighbours' (one of them) will be cured by the use of this medicine. It does not require any longer a sponsor but if you wish me to act as such, I shall be only too happy to have my name connected with your prosperous clinic."

SEPARATE SCHOOLS ROISING MEETINGS IN THE CITY AND AT CANIFTON

OSTROM HUMILIATED AND HIS S'D

His Double Platform on Separate Schools.

MR. VERMILYEA IS SOLD IN THE EAST

Brilliant Address by Candidate The Mowat Policy Adv. Requested and all Assailed Refused.

The nominations yesterday both in the city and at Canifton, were largely attended.
Speech making commenced at 2 p.m. and the city did not conclude until after 6 o'clock. Mr. Hudson was the first to address the large audience, but his speech and in them were those that favored the government, but his speech yesterday showed that he possessed far more ability than he had been credited with. The Separate Schools were his hobby, but he left no stone unturned in his speech to show his true style.

Mr. Hudson followed in an address that was a surprise and delight to his friends.
He has always been credited with being an able man, but his speech yesterday showed that he possessed far more ability than he had been credited with. A brief synopsis of his remarks can be given. The government was fully two-thirds for Biggar.

At Canifton Mr. Vermilyea had the majority with him and he justified on every hand for the attacks of his opponent and sustained his position as a careful, scrupulous and reliable debater.

The men are in the field the bars are down and the contest is on. The government is to be done and east and west Hastings shall surely be redeemed. Let every man show his day by Thursday next by voting for Vermilyea and Biggar and victory shall be ours.

Mr. G. W. Ostrom was the first speaker.
He announced himself for Meredith, but he reserves "sunk or swim." He could not be elected, but he would be a careful and reliable debater.

be given time to see how their policy would work before offering condemnation which was only a reasonable course to pursue.

If the Separate School supporters must have the ballot to reject the government and only vote as the priests directed, how is it that, as Mr. Ostrom says, the Catholic vote is solid for Mr. Mowat?
How could priests influence be wielded under the ballot system, no priest could see how any man voted. He was in favor of giving the ballot as it was asked for, but neither priests nor Separate Schools wanted the ballot. If priests controlled the parishes, as they when elected the ballot would go in opposition to their ecclesiastical advisers. The protestant majority in Ontario must remain the Protestant minority in Quebec.

The abolition of Separate Schools in Ontario means the abolition of the government, and the Protestants of Quebec get more support from the Catholic Government than the Catholics in Ontario get from the Ontario Government. If Mr.
Ostrom and the Ontario opposition were to be for the abolition of the Separate Schools they would have no more made before the House than the Equal Rights bill.

It was sincere in what he now professes, why had he not been sincere in the past?
Sincerity had not been given before the House asked for the Equal Rights bill. He had been very much questioned Mr. Ostrom's motives.

In conclusion he said his record was discharged whatever trusts he had committed to his care in the past and were only calculated to show his responsibility.
He could endorse Mr. Mowat's general policy, but should not be asked to endorse any policy which he considered not in the interests of the country or constituency he would oppose it. If the electors only voted as he felt and believed they would, he would be the next representative to legislate for West Hastings. The applause was deafening.

Mr. R. Dougal was not in favor of Separate Schools. It was an impossibility but he wanted to get them as at the time of confederation. He had the Catholics to the skies and endeavored to convince them that Mowat was making cat's paw of them. He spoke for weeks and was several times interrupted, but Mr. Biggar asked that he be given a hearing when he was not interrupted and stopped by the chairman on the time limit.

Mr. R. Clute was given a great ovation.
He tripped Mr. Dougal up, and showed that Mr. Ostrom allowed Mr.
Meredith, and as he liked it, the Equal Rights platform, something altogether different from Mr. Meredith's. If there was not something wrong with his stomach he would not be so much interested in the matter. He was a very good speaker.
He had defended the government's financial policy, showing that money paid in this country was not used for the benefit of a million of dollars for support of lunatics, criminals and other matters, which if the government only paid as it ought, but no thanks to him or his leader, (Cheer). He showed the government policy of crowding out the Catholic Government got $4 per square mile, while the last Provincial sale secured $2,000 per square mile. The only fact found with the policy was that sales were not brought before the house.

The temperance agitation does not come from the temperance people, the legislature's enactments have met with the temperance people's approval.

He referred to the Separate school matter and said the platform of Mr. Ostrom and his supporters was a vote and catch a vote there, but get there if you can. He arranged Mr. Meredith and showed that he gave his assent in the house to the very Separate school amendment that he was now complaining of.
Mr. Meredith is not in favor of abolishing Separate Schools, but Mr. Ostrom is.

Mr. Dougal said it could not be done.
He said the Equal Rights platform was a manifesto for the abolition of separate schools. Mr. Meredith is not in favor of abolishing them and Mr. Ostrom is a pledged follower of Mr. Meredith.
Here is a queer mixture. There evidently is not a good understanding.

What if I can show you that four years ago, Mr. Ostrom was in favor of separate schools.

Mr. Ostrom—"Oh that letter! It was stolen."

Mr. Clute—"How did he know that I had a letter unless he had written one will read it to you."

Mr. Ostrom—"It was written long before the election by."

Mr. Clute—"When were the last elections held?"

Mr. Clute—"Well this letter was written Dec. 22nd, 1886, some time before the election."

Mr. Ostrom pressed to the front of the platform and frantically shouted, "Let me explain how I came to write it. It is nothing when you come to know the facts," but the crowd yelled "sit down" and with some force he was thrown from his seat, where he sat pale and trembling as the choice plank of his platform which he clung to as a drowning man clings to a straw, was knocked from under him.

Here is his famous letter. Read it.

Trenton, Dec. 22 1886.

I am now fairly in the field and should like to get your personal influence in my behalf.

I should say I am not hostile to your cause, on the contrary I will do EVERYTHING if elected, in my power to maintain the Church's rights and privileges secured to it under the law of the land.

WON'T I DO ANYTHING TO DE-PRIVE YOUR PEOPLE OF THEIR SEPARATE SCHOOLS OR CHARITABLE STATE AID AS AT PRESENT ENJOYED.

Yours truly
O. W. OSTROM.

There was a deafening uproar as Mr.
Ostrom's hypocrisy was exposed and some members of the party on the platform who had been instrumental in wheeling him to the front in line support of Mr. Ostrom.

Mr. Clute asked the audience what they thought of the man who had been so abundant in the abolition of separate schools.
Could they trust such a man with the administration of their property? The crowd howled and hissed.

The meeting broke up in disorder. The letter and the exposure were the best bomb dropped in the centre of the hall.
Mr. Ostrom endeavored frantically to get the attention of the electors, but he failed beyond measure. He was a very good speaker, but he was a very bad man.
